

5. Explain what your thought process would be if you were the Federal Reserve and the country was experiencing a recession? What steps would you take to mitigate the damage? What do you think would be the effects of your changes?